New this year: The anticipated 10 mile AND 2 mile course is new and improved. See web site for status updates.

Just like last year: Finisher certificate for 10 mile participants, notable medals for age group winners, 10% discount at The Shoe Box guaranteed for those registered early, overall 1st and 2nd awards (gift certificates for The Shoe Box in Black Earth, WI), and course records awards.

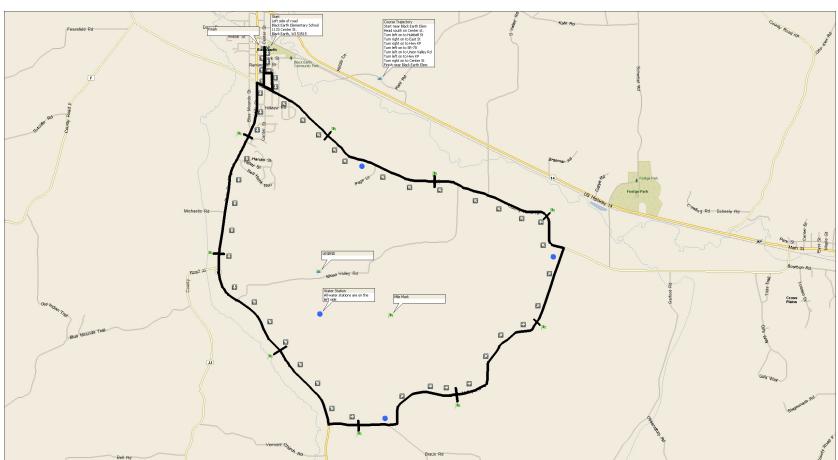

Additionally, we would like to make participants aware of some great organizations. See our website blackearth10.com and get the option to contribute to these great organizations while registering online (sorry, not available by mail in).

Course: The 2019 course (new in 2018) is flat paved road (10mi: one hill) with a scenic view of the valley and hills nearby between Black Earth and local towns with occasional strong winds. An accurate 10 mi loop course and 2mi out and back course. Water and every mile marked. See website for more info and status updates about the course.

DEFINITIONS: "event" refers to the Black Earth 10 Quasi Classic Run. "ADA" refers to Antidoping agencies to include but not limited to USADA and/or WADA

TERMS AND CONDITIONS: I agree to release the volunteers, directors, coordinators, sponsors, beneficiaries, representatives, contractors, and any other affiliates of this event from any combination of liability or losses, including legal claims or liabilities, related to medical costs, monetary losses, and property losses or damages, that I may incur from my participation in the event, travels to the event, travels during the event, and travels from the event. The aforementioned liability constraints also specifically applies to Black Earth 10 LLC, event course marshals, the timing company/organization and their employees/volunteers, registration service providers and their employees and officers, USA Track & Field, Clean Sport Initiative/Collective, State of Wisconsin and Wisconsin Department of Transportation (and any of its officers, agents, employees, and members), Black Earth Elementary School and any of their staff or custodians, Wisconsin Heights School District, the Village of Black Earth, the Town of Cross Plains, Dane County, Dane County Highway Department, the Dane County Sheriff Department and their employees, Town of Vermont, and Town of Berry. I understand that I should keep any personal belongings, for myself and any guests that might attend the event in relation to myself, secured at all times and understand that the event holds no liability for loss of or damage to such belongings. I understand that I should properly train as necessary and also seek professional medical advice as necessary to assure my well being in participating in the event. I also understand that there will not be any medical staff or aid on site or anywhere on the course, and should anything happen I should at least inform the closest course marshal and event director when practical for the given circumstance. I understand the event does not promote harassment of any type, that I am solely liable for any harassment that originates from me, and I agree not hold the event or any of the aforementioned entities liable for harassment that is not directly under their control; should I experience harassment of any type, I should inform the closest course marshal and event director when practical for the given circumstance so that they may attempt practical countermeasures. I agree that my participation in this event is strictly voluntary, and understand that not all traffic is under control by the event and its contracted entities, and vehicles be will allowed to pass through on the road in both directions. Additionally, I also allow the event to take photos or motion pictures, which may be used for purposes of representing my accomplishments and/or event advertising.

-OVERALL AND RECORDS AWARDS SECTION-[does not apply to age group awards, unless you have/had doping violations orders placed on you by the ADA]
Athletes expecting to receive one of our "premier" awards agree to at least make an honest effort to abide by USADA rules and the list of banned substances (many substances include prescription and over-the-counter), and agree that they will submit to testing according to ADA protocols, if the event or ADA sponsors such tests. This event does not guarantee or imply that it is sanctioned in conjunction with any sports organization (i.e. USATF sanctioned events) unless explicitly stated. This event may recognize doping violations orders placed on an athlete (even if expired, or occurring after the event) by the ADA with the following actions: denial of admission or any award, require return of awards of any form or their equivalent monetary value at the time of the event, removal from or changes to the results, and may publicly disclose your violation in any form of media. Entry or re-entry of an athlete that has violated ADA protocol(s) at any time will be completely at the discretion of the event. If you have been found in violation of any rule by the ADA whether prior, during, or after your entry into the event, you agree to inform the event within a reasonable amount of time.

By signing below, I agree to the TERMS AND CONDITIONS and its OVERALL AND RECORDS AWARDS SECTION. Kids of certain age must be accompanied by their parent! Contact us.
